Dear Mr Weissberg,

We heard extraordinary praise for your book, & am so glad you eventually got it published, if even the way you had to (I'm told you are able to be far more frank than any Publishers libel-lawyer would be likely to ~~get~~ let by — ^{e.g.} They tried their best to emasculate my last book); and sorry that I was able to be so little help in the whole thing. But I would very much like to read it & don't know where to buy it — people say when the whole thing explodes the shops are sure to stock it, but I'm impatient. Could you possibly send me 2 copies + a bill?

Hurrah!

Cheers

Sally Beltrage
